ARRIVAL OF THE PHILADELPHIA. The U. S. Mail steamship Philadelphia, Lieut G. V. Fox. U. S. N., commanding, crossed the bar from N. 4 Orients at 5 P. M. of the 2d inst for New York, via Havana at which port she arrived on the evening of the 5th. Having landed her mailward pessengers, she sailed thence at 1 P. M. of the 6th inst. She brings fifty passengers, a heavy cargo, and $20,000 in specie for this port. In Havana, trade in Sugar was reported dull, owing, it was said, to the scarcity of vessels. The weather continued mild and salubrious, and exceedingly (averable for grinding on the estates. Coffee and Fobacco were in demand at ordinary prices. The U. S. steamer Fulton, Lieut Watson commanding, was in Havana, awaiting the arrival of the com-moderstand squadron. The steamship Black Warrior was in possession of the Government efficials, who had hanled her alongside a Government wharf, where her confiscated cargo was being discharged under the superintendence of the Commandante of Customs. Her officers and crew were on board the Fuiton. The nine American seamen confined for the last few months in Havana, had been delivered up to the American Consul, who had placed them on board the Fulton, whence there of them were transferred to the Philadelphia and brought to this City. This was opposed by Messrs Lozier, D. P. Wood and Burnsht, and sustained by Mr. C. C. Leton, when Mr. Figno moved that the Committee report on or before the 21st inst, which prevailed.

Mr. Fiero moved that the Committee report on or before the 21st inst, which prevailed.

Mr. Sterring moved to strike out the instruction to report complete, which being a reverse of the proposition was not in order.

Mr. Lozier moved that the final vote be taken on the 22d inst, but subsequetly withdrew it.

Mr. L. then moved a reconsideration of the vote ordering the Committee to report on the 21st inst. Carried.

Mr. Parne moved Thursday the 16th inst. Carried.

The question was then upon giving the Committee power to report the bill complete.

This required unanimous consent.

Mr. Ward objected, thus making it obligatory for the bill to be taken up in the Committee of the Whole.
